

St. Paul Lutheran LWML, Fairmont
July 7, 2011 Minutes

Executive Board-6:30 P.M.

Opened and closed by saying a verse of “God Bless our Native Land.”

Eve, Ways & Means and Secretary absent from roll call.

Kitchen and stove will be cleaned on Monday July 11 and two (2) from each circle and M-at-L are needed at 9 A.M.

There was a short discussion on why do we need a large stove. Would 1 or 2 smaller ones do.

Ways & Means told us that this is the 60th year that the Ham Supper is being served and plans are to make it a festive Ham Supper by--

1. Asking for one (1) from each circle to serve on the decorating committee
2. Asking for money from LWML to be used for obtaining decorations like helium balloons and banners
3. Asking each circle to provide a dozen frosted cupcakes
4. Asking that adult ticket prices be increased to $9? $10?

Mite box chairman told us that in last Sunday's large mite box $223.64 was collected.

LWML-7:00 P.M.

Welcome by President Judy who said just possibly LWML might mean “Lutheran Women Making Lunch.”

Pastor Bertram led a Bible study on “The Feeding of the Five Thousand” in 4 gospels.

Eve Circle did not answer at roll call.

Correction to secretary's June minutes—It should have read that the kitchen would be done by July 5 not June 27. Minutes approved as corrected.

June 30 treasury balance $4,513.69 with $3414.51 in Special Floor Fund.

Correspondence was read from Lisa Behrens, Lutheran Bible Translators and LSS of MN.

Annual Altar Guild report was presented by Joan Luedtke. The fiscal year began with $527.41 and closed with a balance of $386.98. (Report filed in the secretary's book.)

LWML delegate Kay Groth reported on the convention in Peoria and shared other LWML news.

Funeral of Edna Scheef on June 18 served 119. A $100 donation was received.

New calling lists for July, August and September were ready to be picked up.

Pastor Bertram thanked us for our prayers while on his trip to Russia. A presentation on his trip will be forthcoming.
